Do not become a scam gang accomplice

A friendly reminder to foreign workers

Never lend your ARC, passport, bank account or cellphone SIM card to a fellow countryman or anyone else, to avoid them being used to set up a dummy account or becoming an inadvertent scam gang accomplice

Allowing someone else to use your account is punishable with a maximum prison sentence of 3 years and a maximum fine of NT$1 million.

In accordance with the Criminal Code of the Republic of China (Taiwan) selling the use of one's cellphone SIM card constitutes aggravated fraud and is punishable with 1 to 7 years in prison and a maximum fine of NT$1 million.

Such actions will also impact the rights of a foreign worker to work in Taiwan and reenter the country.

If you encounter what you believe to be a scam call the “165” anti fraud hotline or the 1955 hotline

Jangan Jadi Kaki Tangan Sindikat Penipuan

Huwag Maging Kasabwat ng mga Scammer

Munting Paalala Para sa mga
Migranteng Manggagawa

Ang mga ARC, Pasaporte, Bank Account, at SIM Card ng Telepono Huwag ipagamit sa mga kababayan o sa ibang tao upang maiwasang masangkot at maging kasabwat ng mga scammer.

Ang pagpapahiram ng bank account ay mapapatawan ng pagkakabilanggo ng hindi lalagpas sa 3 taon at ng pagkakamulta ng hindi lagpas sa 1 milyong NTD.

Ang pagbenta ng SIM card ay maaaring mapatawan ng krimen ng panloloko at mabilanggo ng 1 hanggang 7 taon. Mayroon ding karagdagang multa ng hindi lagpas sa 1 milyong NTD.

Ang mga ito ay makakaapekto sa pagtatrabaho ng mga migranteng manggagawa sa Taiwan at ang kanilang karapatang makapasok muli sa bansa.

Sa oras na maghinalang may panlolokong nagaganap, maaaring tumawag sa 165 anti-fraud hotline o kaya sa 1955 upang kumonsulta at maprotektahan ang inyong mga karapatan.
